

American Freedom Alliance

The American Freedom Alliance is a non-political, non-aligned movement which promotes, defends and upholds Western values and ideals. The Alliance sponsors conferences, publishes opinions, distributes information and creates networking groups to identify threats to Western civilization and to motivate, educate and unite citizens in support of that cause.

Council for Democracy & Tolerance

The Council for Democracy and Tolerance is committed to bringing about a change in the radical, extremist and fundamentalist thinking of Muslims in the United States by using newspapers, radio, television and the internet as worldwide media campaign tools. CDT condemns campaigns of Islamic leadership in the USA which incite violence, promote fundamentalism and encourage extremism in order to undermine freedoms in American society. CDT is committed to working for the promotion and expansion of American values in societies controlled by extremists.

European Convention on Liberal Democracy

The European Convention on Liberal Democracy is a joint program of the American Freedom Alliance and the Henry Jackson Society in the U.K. The mission of ECLD is to build a pan-European network of organizations and individuals dedicated to defending and enhancing liberal democracy inside Europe. Through publications, conferences, networking groups and grass roots advocacy, the organization hopes to inspire Europe's confidence in its own liberal democratic heritage and strengthen bonds of friendship and mutual trust with its sister civilization in the United States.

Honorees

Baroness Caroline Cox

British born Lady Cox was created a Peer of the Realm in 1982 at the recommendation of then prime minister Margaret Thatcher. During her parliamentary career she has been involved in innumerable charitable activities and has been a vocal supporter of Israel and human rights.

In 2003 she founded the Humanitarian Aid Relief Trust (HART), which works to provide lasting change through aid and advocacy for those suffering oppression and persecution, but who are largely neglected by the international media. Lady Cox travels regularly to HART-funded aid and advocacy programs in Nagorno Karabagh, East and West Burma, East Timor, India, Nigeria, southern Sudan and northern Uganda.

Nitsana Darshan-Leitner

Nitsana Darshan-Leitner is an Israeli lawyer, human rights activist and founder of Shurat Hadin Israeli Law Center. She is known for her legal activism, especially campaigns to sue terror organizations and terrorists on behalf of victims. She is also a media personality appearing in the press, on radio and television including Israeli talk show programs, Voice of Israel Radio, CNN, the BBC, European television, the Jerusalem Report and many American and Canadian publications. Ms. Darshan-Leitner is the mother of six and married to Israeli attorney Avi Leitner.

Cyrus Nowrasteh

Cyrus Nowrasteh was born in Boulder, Colorado of Iranian descent and grew up in Madison, Wisconsin. A much in demand writer, Mr. Nowrasteh has written for film and television including such productions as 10,000 Black Men Named George, The Day Reagan Was Shot and La Femme Nikita. He wrote and produced the engrossing The Path to 9/11, an account of the events leading up to the terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center on September 11, 2001.

Most recently he was the co-writer (with wife Betsy) and director of The Stoning of Soraya M., a drama portraying the plight of a woman falsely convicted of adultery in Iran. The film has won many international awards including the Audience Award for Best Feature at the 2009 Los Angeles Film Festival, the 2009 Ghent Film Festival's Canvas Audience Award and Outstanding Foreign Motion Picture at the NAACP Image Awards.
